

Cora Howe MVP's
November

Alex Ellison is polite and helpful to teachers and other students. He has been working hard to improve his spelling by doing daily practice tests and homework. He is a joy to have in our classroom!

Joseph Baker- Positive influence on peers, works hard, and tries to be helpful to peers and staff.

Classroom 4's MVP has made incredible gains using her communications and AAC device to interact, make choices, and comment. As well, she is maintaining her academic success and progress across content areas. She is a kind and friendly student who models appropriate behaviors for her peers, she continues to have consistently, minimal behaviors and is an all-around rock star. Way to go!

Jenson is Classroom 5's MVP! Jenson has made incredible gains on his social and emotional regulation and skills. He continues to make progress on his academic goals and objectives and is successfully transitioning between classes and activities. Jenson is a positive model and influence on his peers as he demonstrates his self-regulation skills communication strategies. Way to go Jenson!

Ashley is Classroom 6's MVP! Ashley has successfully transitioned into a new classroom environment and is making incredible progress with her academic and behavioral skills. Ashley is increasing her self-regulation and coping skills; she continues to work on tolerating work and demands. Ashley is active and outgoing: she loves to swing and socialize. Ashley is most successful with the ongoing effort from Ms. Denise and classroom 6 staff. Bien hecho! (Way to go!)
